HOW 2 BOOK YOUR SAFARI

Booking Procedure, Package Pricing & Payment

Booking Procedure

- You make an inquiry.
- We propose an itinerary.
- Several variations are made until the perfect itinerary is reached.
- When you decide to book, we sign a contract and you pay 20% (see Payment)
- We create booking vouchers for all accommodations and hand-deliver these vouchers to the relevant accommodations to check availability and make immediate payment.
- Signed and stamped booking vouchers are scanned and emailed to you as confirmation of your bookings.

Late Bookings

When booked well in advance (6 months or more), there is usually no problem in securing all the desired accommodations. However, when we encounter full locations, we place immediate bookings at alternate locations and then, time permitting, present these options to you for a final decision. Typically, we have been very good at getting excellent locations, even last minute; we always bring cash to secure the bookings immediately. While it's true that many lodges do indeed fill up quickly, we find that rooms usually open up as the date gets closer due to the release of rooms from block bookings.

Block bookings

It is common for tour operators to book several rooms in anticipation that their pre-planned itineraries will be booked full with customers. Many lodges allow block bookings without deposit, but force the tour operators to pay for these rooms or release them as the actual dates get near.

Package Pricing

Unless specified otherwise in the itinerary details, our prices include:

- All accommodation and meals, except for lunch and dinner while on Zanzibar.
